Judith of the Plains

By MARIE MANNING.
Author of "Lord Allingham, Bankrupt"

Copyright, 1905, by Harper & Brothers

Judith had not betrayed her character by the least change of countenance. To the most searching glance every faculty was intent on the shirt waist with the fluted buttons, yet both women felt, by a species of telepathy wholly unexplained, that Judith was deeply wounded. Loyal Sarah Yellett decided that Hamilton's guests would get but a scant supper from her if her friend Judith was to be unfavored with an invitation, while Judith in her own warm heart resented as deeply as ever's slight of herself the tale of Miss Colbrook's impudence to meet Mrs. Yellett. The matriarch's dominant personality evoked many a smile even from those most deeply conscious of her worth, but it wasn't like Peter to make a spectacle of his ruggedly honest neighbor; nevertheless she remarked coolly:

"I shan't be able to bring your shirt waist things up Tuesday, I'm afraid, Mrs. Yellett, but I'll try to bring them toward the end of the week." Then, with a swift change of subject, "How are the boys getting on with their education, Miss Carmichael?"

The boys looked at Mary out of the corners of their eyes. Their prowess in the field of letters had not been publicly discussed before. Mary Carmichael, emboldened by Judith's presence, looked at her tormentors with a judicious glance.

"The girls are doing fairly well," she replied, suppressing the mischief in her eyes, "but the boys, poor fellows—I think something must be the matter with them. Did they ever fall on their heads when they were babies, Mrs. Yellett?"

"Not more than common. All babies fall on their heads. It's as common as cold."

"Poor boys!" said Mary, with a manner that suggested they were miles away rather than within a few feet of her. "Poor boys! I've never seen anything like it. They try so hard, too, yet they can make nothing of work that would be play for a child of three. They must have fallen on their heads harder than you supposed, Mrs. Yellett."

"Perhaps their skulls were a heap frailer than I allowed for at the time," said Mrs. Yellett, with similar remoteness.

ness, yet with a cynicism that showed Mary she understood the situation.

"An infant's skull doesn't stand much knocking about, I suppose, Mrs. Yellett?"

"Not a great deal. If there ain't plenty of vinegar and brown paper handy, and I seldom had such fancy fixings in camp. It's too bad my boys should be dumb 'n account of a little thing like vinegar and brown paper."

"Maw, they be dumb as Injuns," declared Cacta, preening herself, while the Messrs. Yellett reapplied themselves to their dinner with ostentatious interest.

"Well, well," said Mrs. Yellett, "it be a hard blow to me to know that my boys are lackings. There's mothers I know as would give vent to their disappointment in ways I'd consider er cool to the absentminded. Now, hearken, the whole outfit of you! Any offspring of mine now present and forever after holding his peace who comes feeble minded by the end of the coming week takes over all the work, labor and chores of such offspring as demonstrates himself in full possession of his faculties, the matter to be reported on by the government."

No sovereign issuing a proclamation of war could have assumed a more formidable mien than Mrs. Yellett, squatting erect on the prairie, crowned by her rabbit skin cap. Mary and Judith, with bland, impassive expressions, noted the effect of the mandate. There was not the faintest symptom of rebellion. Each broodingly accepted the matriarch's edict without a murmur.

With an air of further meditation on the efficacy of brown paper and vinegar at the crucial moment, Mrs. Yellett suddenly observed:

"The lacking, like the dog, may be taught to fetch and carry a book, but to learn it he is unable."

"Maw, does it say that in the Book of Hiram?" asked Clematis.

"It says that an' more too. It says, 'The words of the wise are an expense, but the lovin' parent don't grudge 'em.'"

Mary Carmichael had noticed as her alien presence came to be less of a check on Mrs. Yellett's natural medium of expression that she was much addicted to a species of quotation with which she impartially adorned her conversation, pointed family morals or administered an occasional reproof. These family aphorisms were sometimes semiclausal, sometimes semiscapular in turn of phrase, and built on a foundation of homely philosophy. They were ascribed to the "Book of Hiram" and never failed of salutary effect in the family circle. But the apt quotations that she had just heard plucked Mary's curiosity more than before.

"Do you happen to have a copy of the Book of Hiram, Mrs. Yellett?" she asked, in all innocence, supposing that the homely apothegms were to be found at the back of some patent medicine almanac. Judith Rodney listened in wonder. The question had never before been asked in her hearing.

"I lost mine," Mrs. Yellett folded her arms and looked at her questioner with something of a challenging mien.

"What a pity! I've been so interested in the quotations I've heard you make from it."

"What's the matter with 'em?" she demanded, pride and apprehension equally commingled.

Judith Rodney rushed to the rescue. "Nothing is the matter with them, Mrs. Yellett," she said, with her disarming smile, "except that there is not quite enough to go around."

The matriarch had the air of gathering herself together for something really worth while. Then she tossed off:

"Tain't always the quality of the grub that confers the flavor, but sometimes the scarcity thereof."

Perhaps it has been the good fortune of some of us to say a word of praise to an author, while unconscious of his relationship to the book praised. Mark the genial glow radiating from every feature of our auditor! How we feel ourselves anointed with his approval, our good taste and critical faculty how commended! It is a luxury that goes a long way toward mitigating the discomfures caused by the reverse of this unctuous blunder.

"The Book of Hiram," said Mrs. Yellett, angling for time, "is a book—it do surprise me that it escapes your notice back east. You ever heard tell of the Book of Mormon?"

Mary assented.

"Well, the Book of Hiram is like the Book of Mormon, only a heap more undeified. The youngest child can read it without asking a single embarrassing question of its elder, and the

"It's mighty inconvenient that I should have mislaid that book," oldest sinner can read it without having any fleshly meditations intrude on his piety."

The Yellett family had by this time dispersed itself for the afternoon, and the matriarch and the two girls started in to clear away the meal and wash the dishes.

"That's the kind of book for me," continued Mrs. Yellett, vigorously swishing about in the soapy water. "Story books don't count none with me these days. It's my opinion that things are snarled up a whole lot too much in real life without pestering over the anguish of print folks. Flesh and blood suffering goes without a groan of sympathy from the onlookers, while novel characters wade to the neck in compassion."

"Has the Book of Hiram anything to say against the habit of novel reading, Mrs. Yellett?" inquired Judith demurely.

She paused for a moment. "It's mighty inconvenient that I should have mislaid that book, but rounding up my recollections of it I recall something like this: Romance is the loco weed of humanity."

With the feeling that there was an excellent though unspoken understanding between them, the two girls walked together to the top of the path that wandered away from camp toward a bluff overlooking wave after wave of foothills, lying blue and still like a waterlaid sea.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 8.—The new era in Russia will be marked by change from the Julian to the Gregorian calendar. The use of the old calendar, which is thirteen days behind that of other civilized countries, has been the cause of infinite confusion. The academy of science has already submitted a plan to shorten the Russian February by thirteen days and to begin March 1 in the new style.

Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 8.—George Billard was roasted alive and Elmer Billard, his brother, and Andrew Denov probably fatally burned at the Bethlehem Steel works. The horrible accident was caused by an explosion of gas in the pig iron beds, which threw several tons of molten metal into the air. The fiery fluid enveloped the men as it descended.

BATTLE OF THE BALLOTS

Results of Tuesday's Elections Contained Some Surprises.

REFORM IS IN THE AIR

The People Express in Positive Terms Their Feelings in Philadelphia and Elsewhere.

Philadelphia Redeemed From the Gallling Bondage Under Which It Has So Long Been Held.

In Ohio the Forces of Reform Carried the Day in a Most Astonishing Manner.

Jerome, Single Handed, Gave Similar Forces in New York a Chance to Act.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Election returns show that the Democrats have carried the mayoralty campaign in New York city; the state ticket in Pennsylvania; the state ticket in Virginia, and the city ticket in Louisville, while the Republicans have made a clean sweep in Massachusetts, and Chicago and Cook county, and have carried their tickets in New Jersey, Rhode Island, Nebraska and

WILLIAM TRAVERS JEROME.

Maryland. In New York Hearst had a plurality in the borough of Brooklyn of almost 16,000. McClellan was re-elected by several thousand plurality. Hearst has charged fraud in the voting. Bird S. Coler was elected borough president of Brooklyn on the Municipal Ownership ticket. The New York election shows that municipal ownership will be a considerable factor in the city's politics. In Ohio the result is still doubtful, though the returns indicate the election of Pattison, the Democratic candidate for governor. The suffrage amendment in Maryland was defeated overwhelmingly.

Massachusetts elected a Republican governor by a majority approximating that of Douglass, the present Democratic governor. There were charges of fraud in New York city and in Louisville. There were a few clashes at the polls, but no serious injuries.

The following is a summary of the returns:

New York—Mayor George B. McClellan, Dem., re-elected by small plurality; William Travers Jerome, ind., district attorney, re-elected; Bird S. Coler, Municipal Ownership, elected borough president of Brooklyn.

Ohio—Both Democratic and Republican leaders claim election. Pattison, Dem., carried Cincinnati, Cleveland, city and county, and the Democrats showed gains in Toledo and Akron.

Maryland—The proposed constitutional amendment, whose alleged purpose was to disfranchise negro voters, was defeated; Republicans elected the state comptroller and city officials; political complexion of legislature uncertain.

Chicago—Republicans made a clean sweep in Chicago and Cook county. Robert R. McCormick, Rep., elected president of the board of sanitary trustees.

Rhode Island—Clean Republican sweep.

Pennsylvania—Philadelphia overwhelmingly carried by the City Party (reform ticket); Berry, Dem., elected treasurer by upward of 75,000 plurality.

Virginia—The Democratic plurality is about 20,000, and Swanson elected governor. Negroes generally remained away from the polls. The next legislature on joint ballot will have 23 Republicans instead of 16 as at present.

Salt Lake City—The American party (anti-Mormon) defeated the Democratic and Republican candidates for mayor.

Louisville—Democrats elected a mayor, and legislature remains practically unchanged, with a good working Democratic majority.

New Jersey—Republican gains in legislature sufficient to preclude any Democratic successor to United States Senator Dryden.

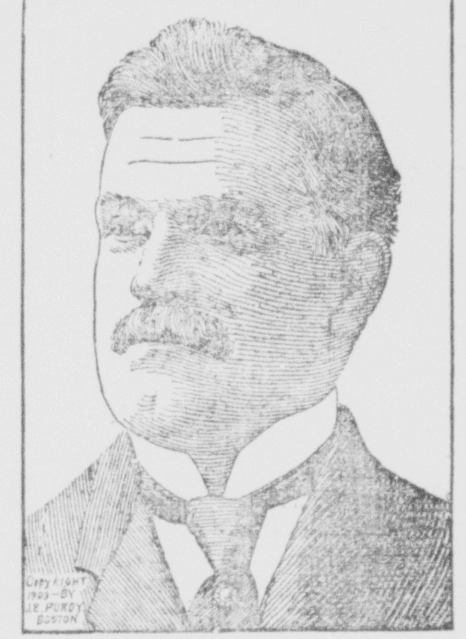

Nebraska—Republican elected state supreme judge.

San Francisco—Union Labor candidate for mayor elected by 15,000 majority.

AT PHILADELPHIA

Reformers Have Things Their Own Way in Quaker City.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Philadelphia has been swept by the reform movement, the City Party ticket winning by a surprisingly large plurality. The defeat of the Republican local ticket was accomplished by about 75,000 plurality. The victory of the City Party carries with it the election of William H. Berry, the Democratic and reform candidate for state treasurer. J. Lee Plummer, the Republican candidate for that office, was badly cut throughout the city and state, and he has lost his own county, which is usually Republican. The result has every appearance of a landslide for reform.

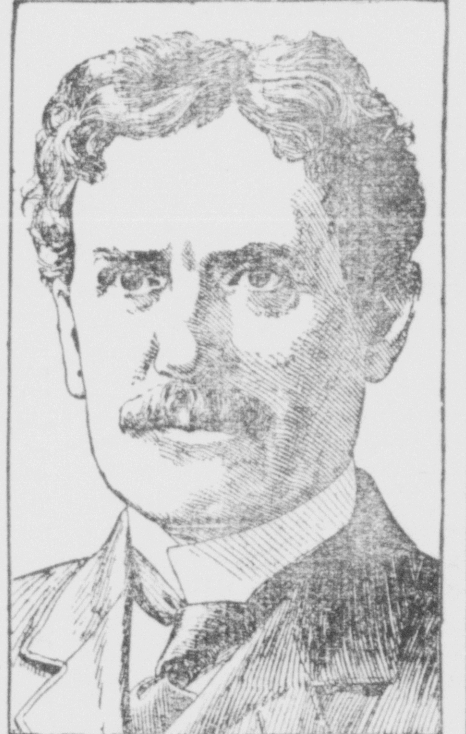

MAYOR JOHN WEAVER OF PHILADELPHIA, not only in Philadelphia, but throughout the state. The Republicans carried only a few wards, and these were by narrow margins. One year ago President Roosevelt carried the city by 189,834 plurality.

IN OHIO

Democrats Overcome Enormous Odds by Narrow Majority.

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Ohio voters Tuesday chose a governor and various state officers, but at this hour it is impossible to give a positive statement of the winners, owing to the incomplete returns from the state, but the returns seem to favor John M. Pattison, Democrat. In the big cities the Democratic gains averaged 108 per precinct, while the gain outside

MYRON T. HERRICK, GOVERNOR OF OHIO, these cities was considerably less. Estimating the unreported precincts at the same ratio, Pattison will be not far short of the 230,000 Republican plurality of last year, with which comparisons are made. Reports of estimated county pluralities thus far received simply indicate that the result will be close, with nothing definite enough to show which way the victory will fall.

Chairman Garber of the Democratic state committee states that he would not give out any formal statement at this time, but from the reports that had reached him he considered the election of Pattison and the entire Democratic ticket assured. He said he believed that Pattison's plurality would approximate 36,000, the figure he had given in his pre-election estimate. As to the legislature, he said that he counted on a large Democratic majority in both houses.

HEARST WILL CONTEST

New York "Municipal" Raises a Cry of Fraud.

New York, Nov. 8.—After a campaign unusual in its public interest and excitement, Tammany Hall met defeat in its hard-fought efforts to elect James W. Osborne to the district attorneyship of New York county, and saved the mayoralty of the city by only a few thousand votes. George B. McClellan, Democrat, was re-elected mayor for a fourth year's term and William T. Jerome, independent, was re-elected district attorney. The extent to which the Tammany organization was shaken may be judged from the fact that there was no fusion of the opposition parties, the means by which the organization has been com-

REFORMERS WIN

Tuesday's Election Shows That Bossism Is Out of Date.

OHIO'S SEVERE LESSON

Protest Against Coxism and Similar Influences Delivers the State to the Democrats.

In Philadelphia the People Come to Their Own-Jerome Wins Out in New York.

New York, Nov. 8.—Elections were held Tuesday in seven states and in six of the larger cities. In Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Virginia and Ohio a governor and other state officers were elected, and in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Nebraska, minor state officers.

The campaigns almost without exception were made on purely local issues, and the results therefore are generally held to have no political significance. The greatest victory probably was the triumph of District State's Attorney William Travers Jerome in New York city. His gallant fight alone against both great political organizations, however, was closely contested by Osborne, the Tammany candidate. Quite a surprise in the New York election was the great race made by W. R. Hearst, municipal ownership candidate for mayor. He gave George B. McClellan, Tammany candidate, the hustle of his life and actually succeeded in carrying Brooklyn by a considerable plurality. He fell down, however, in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx.

Hearst has issued a statement alleging gross frauds on Tammany's part and declares he will contest the election. On the face of the returns McClellan's plurality was less than 4,000.

In Ohio.

The apparent defeat of the Republican ticket, headed by Governor Myron T. Herrick for re-election, and the election of Pattison, Democrat, for governor by a conjectural majority, was a landslide washed down by a tidal wave. In Ohio the full force of the anti-saloon movement operated against Herrick and seems to have brought defeat. The protest against bossism added to the result, and a general clearing of the political atmosphere in Ohio is promised. The announcement of the result was immediately followed by the resignation of "Boss" George B. Cox, the Cincinnati saloonkeeper who has for years dominated the Republican party in that city and indirectly throughout the state. His reign has ended.

The absence of anything like complete returns leaves the contest still in doubt, but the Democratic state chairman openly claims Pattison's election by more than 30,000.

Philadelphia.

In Philadelphia reform was also the watchword and the notorious Republican organization in that city went down in defeat as ignominious as was that of Cox. The reform forces led by Mayor John Weaver carried all before them, and the gang that has battered on Philadelphia for years out of mind is down and out.

Massachusetts.

Massachusetts came back into the Republican column, Curtis Guild, Republican, being elected governor by about 35,000 plurality, much the same as that given to Governor Douglas, Democrat, last year.

Rhode Island.

In Rhode Island Governor Utter, Republican, was returned by a plurality slightly over 1,000 votes. A Republican legislature in both branches was returned.

Virginia.

The Democrats carried the state of Virginia, but by a very much smaller majority than usual. In Richmond only about half the full vote was cast. The Republicans gain seven members in the legislature.

Maryland.

The issue which engrossed the attention of the voters of Maryland was a proposed constitutional amendment, the avowed purpose of which was to disfranchise negro voters, but which aroused widespread opposition among many Democrats and foreign voters in both parties. This opposition was expressed so vigorously that the proposed constitutional amendment was defeated by a decisive majority. The political complexion of the next legislature is uncertain and will not be known until the official count has been taken.

Indianapolis.

The municipal contest in Indianapolis was one of the most hotly fought political battles ever waged in the Indiana capital. Former Mayor Charles A. Bookwalter, who was defeated for re-election two years ago by John W. Holtzman, Democrat, made his campaign on a demand for a vindication of his administration and won by a plurality considerably larger than that which put his opponent into office two years ago.

The Republicans also elected city clerk and police judge and a majority of the council. Throughout the state political questions gave way to local issues in many of the city contests. At Evansville the reform element overthrew the Republican ticket, electing John W. Boehne, Democrat, for mayor. At Richmond the same issue retired Mayor Zimmerman, and for the first time in twenty years a Democrat will be mayor of the city. At Fort Wayne the Democrats elected Hisey over White, Republican. At Terre Haute Mayor Bidaman was defeated by James M. Lyons, who ran on a municipal ownership platform. Logansport Republicans re-elected Geo. P. McKee mayor for the fourth time and carried the council. At Muncie the Republicans elected L. A. Guthrie for mayor, though the Democrats elected the city judge. In many of the smaller cities of the state there were clean sweeps for citizens tickets. There was much scratching in nearly all the cities. At South Bend Edward J. Fogarty, Democrat, was elected mayor for the third successive time. Fogarty represents the liberal element and stands for a wide-open town.

Fifty Years the Standard

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A Cream of Tartar Powder Made From Grapes No Alum

San Francisco.

The fight for municipal supremacy in San Francisco was waged between the Union Labor party, which has held Mayor Schmitz in office for two terms, and a fusion of the Democrats and Republicans. This coalition was unsuccessful and Schmitz was returned for his third term by a majority of about 10,000, carrying the full Union Labor ticket with him.

Louisville.

Paul C. Bartha, Democrat, was elected mayor over O'Neal, the fusion candidate. Charges of extensive frauds are made by the fusionists against the Democratic city administration and the fusion managers state that a contest may be made in the courts.

Cincinnati.

The overthrow of Boss Cox in Cincinnati was complete. Demsey, Democrat, being elected mayor over Gordon, Republican, by a majority of 4,000.

TERRE TELEGRAMS

It is rumored that M. Taigny, the French charge d'affaires at Caracas, is preparing to leave Venezuela.

At a mass meeting of Jewish residents of New York $56,800 was collected for the relief of the sufferers of the massacres in Russia.

The dead body of Lucien Eckhardt, aged twenty-one years, was found in an alley at St. Louis near the home of his fiancée. He had been shot.

At Newburg, Ore., Carl Hurford and his bride of six weeks were found dead in their home by neighbors attracted to the house by the firing of shots.

Can She Save Them?

Many a poor mother who feels that those who hold most precious are gradually slipping away from her over the terrible precipice of disease, would be thankful to know that Doctor Pierce's wonderful "Golden Medical Discovery" has done to restore thousands of weak and wasted children to complete rounded, rosy, healthy, activity and life.

"Five years ago this last fall I was taken down with a fever and was very bad for several months," writes Mrs. Henrietta Bell, of Diamond, Ohio. She continues: "I finally recovered from the fever, then my lungs became very bad. The doctor said I had consumption, and that he had done all he could for me, and he did not think that I could get well. My case was a very dangerous one. Became very weak, had night sweats, also a very bad cough, night and day. At times would spit blood. I felt as though my time on earth would be short. Requested my husband to get me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and perhaps it would help me. Before I had taken one bottle my cough was almost gone. The next to disappear were the night-sweats. I am almost sure that if it had not been for your medicine I would not have been here to-day."

If mothers will only write to Dr. Pierce concerning the ailments of their family he will send them sound and valuable advice in a plain sealed envelope, and without any charge whatever. His remarkably wide experience has qualified him to deal with diseases which baffle the local practitioner. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CLERK AND FOUR COUNCILMEN.

REPUBLICANS WILL REMAIN IN CONTROL OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

Democrats Elect Mayor, Treasurer, and Three Councilmen.—Unusually Large Number of Mixed Tickets Voted.

Out of the ten officers elected at Tuesday's election in this city the republicans won five and the democrats five. But the republicans are not satisfied with that sort of a break. They should have had more. The election of Dr. Kyte was a surprise and a disappointment to republicans and to many democrats. We are firm in our conviction that the defeat of Dr. Graessle was a mistake and that time will prove it. We do not attempt to account for it except to say that overconfidence is sometimes dangerous. Every man on the republican ticket was worthy the earnest support of all believers in honest and economical government. The ticket was a good one even if only half of it was elected. Though disappointed over the partial failure of the republican ticket we trust that all the victors will prove faithful to their official duties when they are ushered into office. The men elected are: Dr. H. R. Kyte, mayor; Fred Everback, clerk; Silas Schmitt, treasurer; W. J. Weaver, councilman-at-large; E. H. Ahlbrand, councilman-at-large; D. B. Robertson, councilman 1st ward; August Cordes, councilman 2nd ward; Arthur Jerrell, councilman 3rd ward; J. W. Morton, councilman 4th ward; Frank Brethauer, councilman 5th ward. The democrats elect mayor, treasurer, Ahlbrand councilman at large, and First and Third ward councilmen. The republican elect clerk, Weaver councilman-at-large, and Second, Fourth and Fifth ward councilmen. This gives the republicans a majority of one in the council. The vote is given in detail in the table below:

ASSURED.

Franchises Being Granted for L. & I. Traction Co.

The Jeffersonville News of Tuesday says that at the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners Monday afternoon a franchise was granted to the Louisville and Indianapolis Traction Company for a right of way through the county over all roads and bridges. The same day J. E. Greeley who has an office in this city and is working on the right of way question obtained a like franchise at Scottsburg for a right of way through Scott county. Henry Knobloch obtained the franchise here, representing the company.

Mr. Greeley is now proceeding to the task of getting the necessary rights of way from private owners and the building of the road is fully assured. It will be as nearly as possible an air line from here to Seymour. In other words it will closely parallel the Pennsylvania and will probably touch all the towns and cities served by that road.

From here to Scottsburg the road will be west of the Pennsylvania and from there to Seymour it will almost certainly be on the east side. The section between may be either side but the probability is that it will be built on the east side, for the reason that the land is better adapted to the construction of the road on that side. A survey has yet to be made east of the Pennsylvania between Scottsburg and Seymour.

The road will be built double track the whole distance from the start and it is estimated that two million dollars will be required to build it. All along the road the people are anxious for it and this will materially help the promoters in clearing away preliminary difficulties.

Ribs Broken.

David D. Brown, who resides about four miles west of Cortland was kicked by his horse this morning as he was putting him in Stewart's Livery Stable in this city. Two ribs were broken in his right side and he suffered severe pain. Dr. Gerrish was called to attend him. Mr. Brown sustained two broken ribs in the same side about four weeks ago and has just begun to be able to walk and be around. He was with his son and returned home this afternoon.

MRS. HUBBARD'S PERIL

Intrepid Woman Explorer's Fate Is Now in Doubt.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 8.—The mail boat Virginia has arrived from northern Labrador, bringing James Richards and Peter Stevens, members of Dillon Wallace's expedition to explore the interior of Labrador. They left Wallace and Easton in September in the wildest part of Labrador. When provisions were growing scarce, Wallace and Easton decided to attempt to reach the caribou country. Before this the party had suffered greatly, owing to the scarcity of game, being on short rations for a considerable period. Richards and Stevens gave Wallace and Easton every ounce of food they could spare and suffered terrible privations themselves in reaching the coast. The mail boat brought no news of Mrs. Hubbard's expedition, which has not been heard of since it left the coast last June. Reliable authority along the coast expresses grave fear that both expeditions have perished, the season having been unusually poor for game, while snow fell on the uplands early in August. It is altogether unlikely that the expeditions can reach the coast later in this season. If they fail to do so they must almost certainly perish.

France Not Satisfied, but Still Hopes for Pacific Adjustment.

Paris, Nov. 8.—The officials here say that President Castro's answer to Mr. Russell, the American minister at Caracas, in response to the latter's efforts to bring about a settlement of the diplomatic dispute between France and Venezuela, is unsatisfactory and evasive, as he does not respond to some of the main questions Mr. Russell submitted in behalf of France. At the same time it is said that the negotiations will not be broken off, as the French officials continue hopeful for a pacific adjustment.

WIDOW RECOVERS DAMAGES

Sues Neighbor for Being Responsible for Husband's Assassination.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 8.—Two years ago Pink Head, a prominent citizen, was assassinated in his yard in Hickman county. A few days before Cheatham Hodge had killed his brother, Robert Hodge, by accident near the Head place. Mrs. Pink Head sued Hodge for $20,000 damages for being responsible for her husband's assassination. A jury as just given her $15,000. Hodge was never prosecuted for the alleged crime.

Declines Supreme Bench.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—Judge Paul Jessen of Nebraska City, who was tendered the appointment to the supreme bench of Arizona, has declined the place.

CHAIRMANSHIP CAMPAIGN

State Politics Will Once More Come Into the Linelight.

Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—Now that the municipal campaign has ended interest will naturally turn to the reorganization of the state committees for the ensuing campaign. The committees will meet here in January to select a new chairman. Chairman Goodrich is a candidate for reelection on the Republican side, although as usual he has not made any announcement to that effect. He is going ahead in the quiet, unostentatious way that has made him a great success as chairman. His record will undoubtedly make him a very strong factor in the race. George A. H. Fiddler of Marion is probably working harder for the place than Goodrich. He has a good following and seems confident of winning.

Frank Jones, who was superintendent of public instruction for two years, is rapidly forging to the front as an insurance man. After he left office here he became a district agent for one of the big New York companies with headquarters at South Bend, but he has resigned to accept a tri-state management for a big Philadelphia company. He will have headquarters at Chicago and will look after the business in Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. Jones was here today en route to Chicago. He says he has cut out politics and will hereafter devote his entire time to business.

Joe T. Fanning, vice chairman of the Democratic state committee, who came here to help the Democratic organization in the wind-up of the city campaign, will return to New York tomorrow. He is confidential secretary to August Belmont, the noted banker and politician. Fanning intends to continue his voting residence in Indianapolis and will spend enough time here to participate in the political game. He said today that he has not heard any talk as to the reorganization of the Democratic state committee, and has no idea what will be done.

Jerry Matthews, formerly secretary to Vice President Fairbanks, and his brother, Will Matthews, who is a deputy in the internal revenue department at Washington, came here to vote for Bookwalter. Jerry is now practicing law and acting as correspondent for a large New York paper. He was one of the best-known correspondents at Washington when he became secretary for Mr. Fairbanks. He expects to devote himself to law and newspaper work. A large number of voters returned to Indianapolis from Washington to take part in the election.

OLD TRAPPER IS DEAD

Noted Illinois River Character Dies at Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 8.—Edward Briggs is dead and Peoria has lost one of its oldest settlers, and one of the quaintest characters that ever resided within its confines. "Governor" Briggs, as he was familiarly known, was eighty-three years of age at the time of his death, and up to within four months ago retained the health and vigor of one who has spent the greater part of his life out of doors, and who revelled in the sports of a hunter and fisherman.

For sixty-two years Mr. Briggs had lived continuously in the city of Peoria, and in his day he was considered the best shot with a rifle and one of the most skilled trappers in the state. He knew the Illinois river from beginning to end, and up until half a year ago the banks of the stream and the woods along its edge were his haunt and practically his life.

STRENUOUS FIGHT FOR TRADE

Merchants of Two Cities Offering Free Railway Tickets to Buyers.

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 8.—There is a commercial war on between this city and Danville, and the weapons are free tickets on the electric and steam roads for prospective buyers. The fight was started by Danville merchants, who flooded Champaign county, territory east of the twin cities, with the free pasteboards, the only clause in the ticket being that the user of the ticket should go to one of a number of stores named and have the return trip verified before it could be used. The Champaign merchants, who will retaliate by sending out free tickets, will act independently of the Champaign Chamber of Commerce, of which they are all members.

Henderson May Live a Year.

Dubuque, Ia., Nov. 8.—The removal of ex-Speaker Henderson from the hotel to the hospital was, according to the attending physician, simply a matter of convenience in providing for the patient's wants. The doctor said that the condition of the ex-speaker, who is suffering from an attack of pneumonia, did not show much change. He thought the patient might live for a year yet, although in cases similar to his, death could occur without a moment's warning.

Innocent Bystander Slain.

Wausau, Wis., Nov. 8.—State Senator James A. Wright and M. W. Lloyd, a timber estimator, have been held jointly by the coroner's jury for the death of Colonel J. A. McKay at Milwaukee, on Friday last. McKay was shot during a political quarrel between Lloyd and Wright. The testimony shows that the revolver was in Lloyd's hands when the shot was fired. It is alleged the shot was intended for Wright.

Shoots Himself in Mouth.

Marion, Ind., Nov. 8.—Lying on a cot in his hut with a gaping bullet wound in his mouth and a revolver with one empty chamber nearby, the lifeless body of Stephen Faulkner was found by his brother. The man had apparently been dead for several days. Faulkner was an oil worker and lived by himself on the McKee farm near Warren.

Makes Sensational Charges.

New Castle, Ind., Nov. 8.—In a suit in which she makes sensational charges, Mrs. Emma Cooper, prominent in the Cooper divorce case, asks that Mrs. Anna Welsh, a wealthy widow of Middletown, be compelled to pay $50,000 for the alienation of Mrs. Cooper's husband's affections.

Evansville Saloon Tragedy.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 8.—Joseph Steele, a Republican ward worker, well known in sporting circles, was fatally shot by Charles Stone, a carriage trimmer. Steele and Stone quarreled over politics in a saloon.

OLD SORES SAP THE VITALITY AND UNDERMINE THE HEALTH

Old Sores that refuse to heal are a constant menace to health. They sap the vitality and undermine the constitution by draining the system of its very life fluids, and those afflicted with one of these ulcers grow despondent and almost desperate as one treatment after another fails. They patiently apply salves, washes, plasters, etc., but in spite of all these the sore refuses to heal and eats deeper into the surrounding flesh, destroying the tissues and growing to be a festering, inflamed and angry mass. The source of the trouble is in the blood. This vital fluid is filled with impurities and poisons which are constantly being discharged into the sore or ulcer, making it impossible for the place to heal. It will not do to depend on external applications for a cure, because they do not reach the real cause, and valuable time is lost experimenting with such treatment; the most they can do is keep the ulcer clean. Any sore that will not heal is dangerous, for the reason that it may have the deadly germs of Cancer behind it. A cure can be brought about only through a remedy that can change the quality of the blood, and this is what S. S. S. does. It goes to the very bottom of the trouble, drives out the poisons and germs with which it is filled, and purifies and builds up the entire circulation. By the use of S. S. S. the sore is supplied with new, rich blood which corrects the trouble, soon stops the discharge, and allows the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. also reinvigorates the entire system, and where the constitution has been depleted or broken down it quickly builds it up and restores perfect health. Write for our special book on sores and ulcers, and any medical advice you are in need of, no charge for either.

A SUGGESTION

To The People of Seymour

The articles appearing in some of our leading publications have created a good deal of discussion in Seymour in regard to advertised medicines, their reliability and power to cure, and as local druggists, we, the W. F. Peter Drug Co. want to say to the people of Seymour that we believe one of the most reliable medicines that we have known in our drug experience, extending over a long period, is Vinol the cod liver preparation, made without oil.

Vinol is not a patent medicine; everything in it is printed on the back label of every bottle, and it actually does contain in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal, curative elements of cod liver oil taken from fresh cods' livers, and without a drop of the system clogging oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and this is why it is fast superseding old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions.

Inasmuch as Vinol is therefore the latest scientific improvement of an old and standard remedy it is the greatest strength creator in the world for old people, weakly women and children nursing mothers and after a severe sickness. It cures hacking coughs, chronic colds and all pulmonary troubles. We positively guarantee to return money if it fails. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Great Entertainment.

Morrissey's $5,000 scenic production, "Ireland," combined with the Hibernian Troubadours and select vaudeville has been secured by Manager Bartlett for Friday night. This attraction's cleanliness, pictorial effects genuine Irish comedy, speed and real melody and other welcome elements, point to a great entertainment for our playgoers. A writer in the Rochester Democrat says, "Morrissey's 'Ireland' is not a play or a show—it is a universal exposition, filled with more human interest than half dozen plays."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces.
